

Tool and Equipment

April 2024

Prepared by Transportation Planning
Missouri Department of Transportation

Stainless Steel Shut Off Handle

Description and Benefit

This innovation is a stainless steel shut off handle for two-inch water lines that are buried. The stainless-steel handle saves money because we don't have to come out and dig up the ground to replace the valve that costs around $2,000 to replace one and that is not counting the down time the maintenance buildings are without water to wash equipment and to make brine.

For More Information Contact

Kansas City District - Maintenance

Robert Davis at Robert.r.davis@modot.mo.gov or 816-365-9946.

Kansas City District - Maintenance

Randy Whyde at Randy.Whyde@modot.mo.gov or 816-347-4106.

materials cost

1x1 Stainless tube 10 foot	$168.50
3/16 x1 stainless flat bar 6 in	$3.11
Stainless washer/nut/bolt	$1.50